

Dm                                  F                                  C                                  G

Something wants to change in me. I don't know what to do.

Dm                                  F                                  C                                  G

Something wants to change in me. It wants me to start a new

G      F                          G                          C

And a rainbow is singing in my heart.

        F                          G                          C

Yes a rainbow is singing in my heart.

F                                  G                                  C                                  Am

It sings about the good things, which are about to start.

        F                          G                          C

A rainbow is singing in my heart.

Something wants to change in me. It wants me to grow.

Something wants to change in me. It wants me to get up and go.

        F                          G                          F                          G

A rainbow is singing. A rainbow is singing.

        F                          G                          C

A rainbow is singing in my heart. (zum Ende des Songs)