You are a wonderful politician for this world. Oh Yeah!

C

G

You love your country.

C

G

You love your people, too.

C

G

With what you do, you want to give them and rich again. Oh Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!

Even if you haven't started a war, longer than any president before,

You still have to sail against the storm, of mainstream news.

They want to destroy you, but liars can only lose.

We can look beyond that: The winner is the truth.

Your greatest vision is to make an end of abusing children all over the world.

That they don't need to have any fear playing under the open sky.

You are such an awesome strategist, who makes so many good contracts.

You stop the bad so good things are blooming

So may people give their respect to You. May god bless your way.

The best what can happen to us is that you stay. Stay! Stay! Stay!
